This coin also mentioned. * The eleven coins described under nos 8544-8555 had all been given to Cyrene by Sir Hermann Weber, in accordance with Muller, Head and others, but Babelon (Traité, II, p. 1270) gives reasons for giving up this attribution to the various types of coins, composing the Find of Cos, and prefers to place them among the Uncertain of Thrace, Macedon, and the Aegean Islands. Svoronos ascribes them to the Pierians of the Pangaeum.

THE PHILOCTETES VASE.

SIR HERMANN WEBER'S COLLECTION OF ANTIQUITIES

It had been intended to bind in with the Second Part of Volume III the Sale Catalogue of Sir Hermann Weber's Antiquities, which were dispersed by Messrs Sotheby and Co, on the 22nd and 23rd May 1919. Unfortunately, these catalogues which had been left with the printers for safekeeping have either been mislaid or destroyed.

The collection consisted of Greek, Roman and Egyptian Antiquities, Vases, Bronzes, Terra-Cotta Figures, Glass, Ornaments in gold, silver, ivory, bronze, etc.

Among the most interesting items we may mention the following :

Lot 23. A bronze statuette (height $4\frac{1}{2}$ inches) of IMHOTEP, the physician god of the ancient Egyptians, seated; the god wears the conventional skull-cap, and a scroll lies open on his knees; his usekh or collar is inlaid in gold. This came from the Gréau sale, Paris, 1885, lot 801; Pl. XV, 2.

Lot 55. A terra-cotta Phiale, $9\frac{1}{2}$ in. in diam. by $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. high, with a representation, according to Klügmann, probably of the Marriage of Hercules. The phiale forms the subject of a paper by Dr F. Parkes Weber, F.S.A., in the Proceedings of the Society of Antiquaries (Feb. 14, 1895).

Lot 73. Wrongly described in the catalogue as an Etruscan Bucchero-ware Phiale, is a black "umbilical" patera of Cales make. The design represents scenes from the Odyssey. Presented to the British Museum by Dr F. Parkes Weber.

Lot 74. Also wrongly described, is a black "umbilical" patera of Cales make, of a pattern representing the "chariot of the gods".

Lot 84. A Panathenaic Amphora, black figure period, 15 in. high; with Athena on one side, and diskobolos, athlete and judge with wand. From the Rhodus sale at Sotheby's, 4th December 1885 (lot 145).

Lot 85. A Greek black-figure Kylix, $7\frac{1}{4}$ in. diam., representing a combat between Greek warriors. Signed ΑΓΚΕΣΤΟ (backwards).

Lot 92. A Lekythos with red-figure design. This vase is known as the "Philoctetes Lekythos" and is illustrated in L. A. Milani's "Il Mito di Filottete", Florence, 1879, from which our illustration, on special plate, is taken. The compiler of Sotheby's catalogue described the scene as representing Oedipus in exile.

Lot 174. Archaic statuette of the god Mars, $9\frac{1}{2}$ in. high. This was from A. Castellani, Roman sale, 1884, p. 48, n° 289.

Lot 185. Bronze Figure of a fighting Gladiator; $5\frac{3}{8}$ in. high. From the Gréau sale, p. 57, n° 264 (vignette).

Correct in the description of lot 218, Dr Pantaleoni; lot 219, Gréau for Grean; lot 220, same correction.

Lot 221. A fine Bronze Patera; from the H. Hoffmann sale, Paris, 1888; lot 407.

Collectors and others, who own the Sir Hermann Weber Sale Catalogue of Antiquities, will be glad of the above corrections and annotations, for which we are indebted to Dr F. Parkes Weber, F.S.A.

NOTES AND RECTIFICATIONS

TO VOLUME I.

CF. ALSO ERRATA, I, p. 377, II, p. 579).

- P. 41, n° 198. Ariminum. The warrior is armed with a short sword and a spear, the latter being the sheath of Carelli, pl. xxiv, 1. (S.W. Grose).
- P. 46, last line, "oter" for "other".
- P. 67, n° 314. Hyria. From the spacing of the letters I should judge that ↓ is a form for Y and not a plant or a harpoon as suggested by Imhoof and Sambon. McClean n° 219 has the form shaped ↓ in the writing of the ethnic usually given as ΑΥΙΔΥ. (S.W.G.).
- P. 69, n° 321. Neapolis. To judge from the style of the obverse I should wish to assign this anepigraphic coin to Nola rather than to Neapolis. (S.W.G.).
- P. 72, n° 332. Neapolis. The proposed resolutions of the monogram do not take into account the small Λ at the foot of the first upright which is visible on the plate and on other specimens. (S.W.G.).
- P. 73, nos 365, 367 a. "Hemilitra" instead of Hemilitron as intended.
- P. 104, n° 502. Graxa. Another example of a countermarked quadrans of Graxa, to be added to the seven examples of this coin, which I was able to find when dealing with the coins of this mint in Num. Chron., 1916, p. 203 seq. The weight of this specimen helps to confirm the views there expressed. (S.W.G.).
- P. 104, n° 503 and pass., "cockle-shell". Generations of numismatists have insisted on calling this shell by a wrong name. It is really the scallop-pecten, as added in brackets to nos 649-50. (S.W.G.).
- P. 185, n° 880. (Pl. 35). Thurium. The monogram on this Thurian didrachm is simply Ξ; cf. Jameson Cat., n° 365. There is another specimen from the same dies in the Cabinet des Médailles, Paris, shewing distinctly the Ξ. (M.P. Vlasto).
- P. 185, n° 881. Thurium. I have misrepresented Mr. E. J. Seltman in stating that he supported M. Sambon's theory about Φ and Phrygillos (viz. the bird). "Prof. Regling accepted it (Terina, p. 44). On the contrary I expressed 'bedingte Zweifel' (Terina, p. 41), i.e. I did not feel sure that it was an engraver's Φ. What I said was that the ΦPY (not the mere Φ) confirmed M. Sambon's idea". (E.J.S.).
- P. 190, n° 909. Copia. The obverse type reproduced on the plate is certainly of a coin of Orra. In fact, it is the coin figured on Pl. 23, n° 507.
- P. 192, n° 917. Velia. Delete the comma after above.
- P. 212, n° 1009. Croton in alliance with Zancle. The letters are PA and not DA.
- P. 212, n° 1012. Π occurs with the radiating lines on the reverse of a McClean coin of Croton, combined with an obverse bearing a cantharus for symbol. (S.W.G.).

- P. 250, n° 1196. Agrigentum. Compare with this coin of Agrigentum signed MYP one of quite similar style with the fly for symbol on the obverse, which will be found in the McClean collection, n° 2042. (S. W. G.).
- P. 266, n° 1270. Line 7. "vreath" for "wreath".
- P. 304, n° 1451. Motya. Formerly attributed to Segesta; suggests the probability of a close connection between the two mints. For while the ivy-leaf behind the female head on this coin occurs on coins certainly of Motya (e. g. McClean 2460)—the head itself is closer in style to an undoubted coin of Segesta (McClean 2552), where it is combined with the obverse type of the Weber coin, a hound standing on a stag's head and above it a small head, r. This symbol also occurs on coins of Segesta with the ordinary type of the prowling hound. (S. W. G.).
- P. 310, n° 1476. (Pl. 56). Panormus? The exergue of this coin does not bear an inscription  as described, but really shows a swan with spread wings. This coin is from the same dies as Benson sale Catalogue, n° 250. E. J. Seltman's attribution of the coin to Camarina is correct. (M. P. Vlasto).
- P. 345, n° 1623, line 3. 'Quaters' instead of 'quarters'.
- P. 348, n° 1639. Syracuse. The legend should be [IEY]ΣΕΛΕΥΘΕΡΙ[ΟΣ].
